Assessment against NPPF LGS Criteria
In reasonably close proximity to the community it serves	Yes. Adjacent to and accessed via extensive housing estate
Local in character and not an extensive tract of land	Yes. The park is the right size for what facilities it offers. ???hectares
Demonstrably special to the local community and holds a particular significance, for example because of its beauty, historic significance, tranquillity, recreational value (including as playing field) or richness of wildlife or historical significance	The only children's play area in the village and very well used. Sports field is only area where people can enjoy informal ball games & a key facility to enable young people to ''let off steam''. Community garden is fairly recently established and very well supported.
